THE ALISTAIR HULETT MEMORIAL TRUST

is a non-profit association established in the UK and Australia after the untimely death in 2010 of singer, songwriter and political activist, Alistair Hulett.

The purpose of the Trust, in addition to preserving Alistair Hulett's musical legacy, is:

1. to promote equality and diversity by campaigning for social justice through music; and
2. to advance, improve, support and develop the appreciation of the art and science of music in all its aspects, including through the presentation of public concerts and recitals and the production of both recorded music and written music.

All donations and income from the sale of merchandise associated with Alistair Hulett and the AHMT, including CDs, goes to the Trust.

WORKING IN SOLIDARITY

The Alistair Hulett Memorial Trust will work with community groups, campaigns and organisations to raise money in order to impact change and further human rights through music and the arts.

If you are from a union, community group, campaign or voluntary organisation and would like support or assistance in raising money through benefit concerts, CD production or similar activity, please contact the Trust.

For further information log on to the website www.alistairhulett.com or contact the Trustees via the details provided at the back of this brochure.
